

A.A.A. CERTIFICATES OF HONOUR

Continuous meritorious service of at least ten (10) years at both State and Federal Level may be recognised by the awarding of a “Certificate of Honour”.

The following Queenslanders have been awarded Certificates of Honour for outstanding service to both the Queensland Amateur Fishing clubs’ Association Inc and the Australian Anglers Association :

Ernie Beitzel* Awarded a Certificate of Honour at an AAA meeting in Sydney, in 1976.

Clinton Barrett* Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 1979 Warrnambool Carnival.

Gordon Hando DFC* Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 1981 Port Lincoln Carnival.

Dave Bateman A.M. Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 1983 Ballina Carnival.

Lyle Guy Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 1985 Bunbury Carnival.

Bill Kerr B.E.M.* Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 1987 Gold Coast Carnival.

Jack Alvey O.A.M.* Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 1989 Warrnambool Carnival.

John Crone O.A.M. Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 1997 Rainbow Beach Carnival.

David Reberger Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 2005 Capricorn Coast Carnival.

Pam Crone Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 2013 Sunshine Coast Carnival.

Reg Lythall* Awarded a Certificate of Honour at the 2018 Harrington NSW Carnival.

* Deceased

A.A.A. CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

Valuable service of at least five (5) years at both State and Federal Level may be recognised by the awarding of a “Certificate of Appreciation”. The person who is awarded this honour needs to have participated in at least 5 conventions and contributed to the hosting of a Carnival, particularly involving the planning and/or running of the event.

John Kaye Awarded a Certificate of Appreciation at the 2013 Sunshine Coast Carnival.